

---

Invited Presentations

---

Venue: Auditorium 2
8:00-10:00	Symposium Convenor: Duarte Maria (Portugal)	New challenges for vocational psychology
	Soresi Salvatore (Italy) Heppner Mary (USA) Nota Laura (Italy) Heppner Puncky (USA) Ferrari Lea (Italy)	Vocational designing and career counselling: Challenges and new horizons. The point of view of career practitioners and researchers
	Verbruggen Marijke (Belgium) Dries Nicky (Belgium)	Differential effects of specific outcome expectations on career counselling's effectiveness
	Bimrose Jenny (UK)	Strange bedfellows: Theory, research, practice, training and policy?
	Maree Kobus (South Africa)	A meta-reflection theory of career counselling: An exciting opportunity for vocational psychology
	Duarte Maria (Portugal)	New challenges for vocational psychology: Myth or reality?
10:00-11:00	State-of-the-Science Lecture Rutter Michael (UK) Chair: Cockcroft Kate (South Africa)	The two-way interplay between nature and nurture: Concepts, findings, and prospects
11:00-12:00	IUPsyS Presidential Address Silbereisen Rainer (Germany) Chair: Ritchie Pierre (Canada)	Social change and human development
12:00-13:00	Controversial Debate (Jacobs Foundation, IUPsyS) Berry John (Canada) Squire Corinne (UK) Moderator: Fourie Eduard (South Africa)	Fostering an integration identity among ethnically diverse populations is the best way to promote psychological health
13:00-14:00	State-of-the-Science Lecture Christie Daniel (USA) Chair: Suffla Shahnaaz (South Africa)	Global developments in the science and practice of peace psychology
14:00-15:00	State-of-the-Science Lecture Wilson Barbara (UK) Chair: Shuttleworth-Edwards Ann (South Africa)	Cutting edge developments in neurorehabilitation and future directions
15:00-16:30	Translational Policy Research Lecture (Jacobs Foundation, IUPsyS) Elbert Thomas (Germany) Kaminer Debra (South Africa) Chair: Suffla Shahnaaz (South Africa) Discussant: Freeman Melvyn (South Africa)	Post and continuous traumatic stress: Challenges and new directions

Tuesday - 24 July